President's Message

Jamsen Smith gave a good presentation for the Mule Deer Foundation at the last meeting. I appreciate their efforts to improve our hunts.

We had a good meeting last month with pretty good attendance. As you can see we have plans for the upper range this spring and hope to have the concrete poured and roof on for summer.

We have already received a lot of 2010 club dues. Thanks for being prompt. Remember they are due before the March meeting or you have to pay the initiation fee again.

I have been out to the range several times in the last couple of months and was very disappointed in how messy it is. Old boxes, targets and other trash are being left on the range. We need to take care of our own messes. If you have enough energy to haul it out then you have enough energy to clean it up. Please keep our range clean. It helps every one.

Please note the Mule Deer Foundation Banquet on Jan. 30th at the Booth Barn in Pocatello. Our support will be appreciated.

Thanks for your help.

See you at the next club meeting.

Minutes of Club Meeting held December 2, 2009

The meeting was called to order by president Gordon Wankier at 7 PM. Members present: Gordon, Rod Cross, Ron Weaver, Gene Davids, Vern Hutchens, Kellee Johnson, Larry Taylor, Lyle Lambert, Randy Shikashio, Nate Satterthwaite, and Chris Jenneiahn.

Gordon began the meeting by commending those who had their club renewals in on time and for filling out the survey for things sponsored throughout the year. He announced that we received about $21,000 in dues last year and spent about an equal amount. The large output of monies for this year will be improvement of the upper range. Three bids have been requested for the concrete needed. A committee had already been put in place to oversee this project.

The annual board meeting will be held at Stan's on January 27th at 6 PM.

Jamsen Smith, vice president of the Mule Deer Assn. gave a great program on what this organization does and how to become a supporter. Their dinner/auction will be held on Jan. 30th at the Booth Barn in Pocatello. Going to the Mule Deer Web site will give you further information on the organization as well as their annual fund raiser.

New members were introduced and acknowledged. The meeting adjourned at 7:45.
